

Dangerously Close to Home

Let's Keep Marching

Closing Reception

Are you itching to feel these tactile banners?
Do you want to activate resistance?

Join us!

Dangerously Close to Home ends this Sunday and the signs are coming off the walls early.

We will be waving, flaunting, parading and cavorting.

Feel the weight of the weaves in your own hands and pose with your favorite messages.

All Word Weaves include both a bracket to hang on a wall and a picket to use as a stand.
